New Year's Day is a time for reflection. We like to spend the day thinking about the past year and making resolutions for the year to come. Of course, some years, we're ready to move on and not look back! And 2021 may feel like one of those years. Where we've never been quite so ready to flip the calendar to welcome a new year and be hopeful about the months to come. So I thought that while we reflect on 2021 and prepare for what 2022 has in store, we could really use a laugh.

Regardless of what your New Year's Eve plans look like this year, be sure to take the time to celebrate, because we made it! Perhaps you're staying home, playing some New Year's Eve games with the family, and waiting to watch the ball drop in Times Square on TV. Or maybe you're meeting up with friends to toast with New Year's Eve cocktails. Whatever may be your situation I am sure we all would appreciate enjoying a moment of joy so here are a few jokes I hope will put a smile on your face!

Here are a few chuckles to get you started...

What is corn's favorite holiday? New Ears Eve.

What's a cow's favorite holiday? Moo Year's Eve

They say New York City has the best New Year's celebration, but I say it's overrated. Every year they drop the ball.

Some astronauts wanted to have a New Year's party on the moon, but they didn't planet in time.

What do farmers grow on January 1? New Year's Hay.

What does the little Champagne bottle call his father? Pop!

I thought I got lost on New Year's Eve, but then I found the Auld Lang sign.

Why did 2021 go by in a blur? My resolution must've been too low.

Where did the chef celebrate New Year's? Thyme's Square.

What did the bull say on January 1?

Happy New Steer.

Why did the woman start making breakfast at 11:59 p.m. on December 31? She wanted a New Year's toast.

My New Year's resolution was to read more, so I turned on the subtitles on my TV.

"Youth is when you're allowed to stay up late on New Year's Eve. Middle age is when you're forced to."

I was going to give up all of my bad habits for the new year, but then I remembered that no one likes a quitter.

At the beginning of the year, I made a resolution to lose 15 pounds. Only 20 more to go!

January Highlights

COVENANT RENEWAL SERVICE

In 1663 Richard Alleine, a Puritan, published Vindiciae Pietatis: or "A Vindication of Godliness in the Greater Strictness and Spirituality of It". In 1753, it was again published in John Wesley's A Christian Library. Wesley used one chapter, "The Application of the Whole," on Monday, August 11, 1755, in what probably was the first real celebration of the Covenant Service in the Methodist movement.

Wesley found the service rich and meaningful, as expressed in his Journal: "Many mourned before God, and many were comforted" (April 1756); "It was, as usual, a time of remarkable blessing" (October 1765). "It was an occasion for a variety of spiritual experiences ... I do not know that ever we had a greater blessing. Afterwards many desired to return thanks, either for a sense of pardon, for full salvation, or for a fresh manifestation of His graces, healing all their backslidings" (January 1, 1775). In London these services were usually held on New Year's Day. Around the country the Covenant Service was conducted whenever John Wesley visited the Methodist Societies.

The heart of the service, focused in the Covenant Prayer, requires persons to commit themselves to God. This covenant is serious and assumes adequate preparation for and continual response to the covenant.

Come and refresh your faithful purpose as we unite in the renewal of our Christian covenant with God.

MISSION MOMENTS

Human Relations Day (January)

Together, we extend a helping hand to those in crisis so they can overcome formidable obstacles.

EVERY ONE OF US IS OF SACRED WORTH

We are all family. When we walk past our neighbor who is hiding in plain sight, we limit the gifts and graces that our sisters and brothers in Christ bring to the table. We limit the experiences, the voices and the beloved community that take place through mutual sharing of gifts. With a special offering celebrating Human Relations Day, we join with United Methodists around the world, remembering that the size of the table of divine love is unlimited.

Across the United Methodist connection we come together to help bridge the gap between church and community by participating in an offering set aside for Human Relations Day. For more than half a century, United Methodists have observed this churchwide special Sunday in recognition of the message Jesus demonstrated during his life: all of God's children are important.

One of the wonderful aspects of The United Methodist Church is that we can do so much more together than we ever could do on our own. On Human Relations Day, we join other UMC congregations in a special offering to support neighborhood ministries through Community Developers, community advocacy through United Methodist Voluntary Services and work with at-risk youth through the Youth Offender Rehabilitation Programs.

In recognizing Human Relations Day, we are called to make an impact in communities where people struggle because they don't have the tools or resources to reach their God-given potential. Our gifts are part of building beloved community through faith-based volunteer programs, community developers and programs that work with at-risk teens.
