

*As we unite in worship today, we extend a warm welcome to each one present.
May we together experience the presence of God*

We Gather to Prepare Our Hearts to Meet Our Lord

Prelude – Welcome - Announcements

Opening Meditation

Does it feel cliché to focus on love in worship? Does it seem that we might need something more profound? Actually, there isn't anything more profound than love as the determining force that motivates all that we do as the church. It begins, of course, with the desire to love God more. We're called to love with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. That seems pretty all encompassing.

Can we honestly say that we love God with that kind of passion and fervor?
Can we say that all our thoughts each and every day are, "How can I show love to God today?"

And then to love our neighbor as ourselves. The last two Sundays, we have been called to see ourselves as worth something in God's community we call the church. And now the call is to love our neighbor as though they were us, our own flesh and blood, our own bodies.

So, as we worship, let us sing about loving; let us pray to be more loving; let us listen to the scriptural stories of powerful and transforming love, all with the intention of shaping our everyday lives along the pattern Paul describes in I Corinthians 13.

Call to Worship

Today, the words of God come to us, in love, inviting us to not be afraid, but to place our faith in God.

Today, the word of God comes to us, in faith,
inviting us to trust in the One who knows us,
to place our hope in the One who saves us.

Today, the Word of God comes to us, in hope,
inviting us to be gracious in our love and in our service to others.

OPENING PRAYER

God of Gods:

We come to worship today to hear your good news,
to hear of faith, hope and love
ringing out from your kingdom.

We know that doubt, fear and hatred

can shake even the strongest.
Shape us into faithful hopeful people,
fill us with your love that passes all understanding.
We pray this together in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

We Hear God's Word

New Testament Reading..... 1 Corinthians 13:1-13

New Revised Standard Version

The Gift of Love

1 If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast,[a] but do not have love, I gain nothing.

4 Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant 5 or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; 6 it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. 7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8 Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. 9 For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; 10 but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end.

11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. 12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly,[b] but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. 13 And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

Faith Hymn UMH 145 "Morning Has Broken"

Author: Eleanor Farjeon (1931)

1 Morning has broken
Like the first morning,
Blackbird has spoken
Like the first bird.
Praise for the singing!
Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing Fresh from the Word!

2 Sweet the rain's new fall
Sunlit from Heaven,
Like the first dewfall
On the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness

Of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness
Where his feet pass.

3 Mine is the sunlight,
Mine is the morning,
Born of the one light
Eden saw play.
Praise with elation,
Praise every morning,
God's re-creation
Of the new day!

PRAYER OF INTERCESSION: YOUR LOVE (inspired by 1 Corinthians 13: 1-13)

Your love is patient;
we give you thanks for all those who have been patient with us and have taught and cared for us;
and we pray for the patience to love others
as you have loved us.

Your love is kind;
give us the courage to be kind to others
and to serve those with patience who are so often unkind, rude, difficult to love, or our enemies.
They are your children and our sisters and brothers and they were made in your image.

Your love is not pompous;
give us insight to speak the truth in love and for the sake of your kingdom and not out of a need to appear clever or right and in all our relationships give us the wisdom to listen far more than we speak.

Your love does not seek its own interests;
we thank you and pray for those who serve the poor and those in need,

who give tirelessly of themselves and who have much to do and little time for themselves.

Your love is not quick-tempered;
we pray for those who are angry
and for the violent and their victims;
for children who fear, elders who are abused,
and people trapped in relationships that injure and harm.

Your love bears all things;
we remember before you those with heavy burdens,
many cares, much stress, and too little comfort and help.
Open our eyes to those around us and their needs and give us the wisdom to offer help without any prying or sense of superiority.

Your love never fails;
even death does not trespass on the breadth and depth of your love.
We thank you for those we have loved in this life and who now dwell in the peace and joy of your presence and let your comfort settle on those who are bereaved or who are lonely this day.
In the name of Jesus we pray, Our Father...

Offertory/Doxology/Prayer

Loving God, we have been blessed with so much through your goodness. As we bring our gifts in gratitude this morning, you remind us that it doesn't matter what we have in our lives, if we do not have love, we have nothing. This love is not the love of Valentine's Day cards, and not even the love we feel among families, which are both rich blessings. You long for us to experience agape love – the love of the world, the love for those we don't even know. Open our eyes and our hearts. In Christ, our teacher, we pray. Amen. (1 Corinthians 13:1-13)

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me
Let There Be Peace on Earth
The peace that was meant to be
With God as our Father Brothers all are we Let me walk with my brother
In perfect harmony.
Let peace begin with me
Let this be the moment now.

With ev'ry step I take Let this be my solemn vow
To take each moment and live
Each moment in peace eternally
Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me

Benediction

Go now, and wherever people will hear you,
proclaim the life-changing love of God.
Do not fear your weakness,
for when you are weakest, Christ's strength is known.
Travel lightly, live simply,
and honor those who welcome the gospel.

In the name of Christ. Amen.
